

VALENTINE SCHOOL FEIS

DATE: Saturday, February 12, 2011

PLACE: John Abbott College
Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue, QC

WHAT IS IT?

The Valentine School Feis is an Irish dance competition that is open to dancers from all locations of The Bernadette Short School of Irish Dancing only. This competition is a great way to try-out competitive Irish dance in a friendly and casual atmosphere as dancers have the opportunity to be in a competitive situation with their teachers nearby for support and encouragement. The dancers are adjudicated, ranked and placed in each of the dances they perform. First year dancers will perform at least one and up to three dances. Other dancers can compete in all dances that have been covered in class. In addition to the competitions, the Feis Café will be set up with snacks and Valentine-themed goodies, raffles and activities. The Valentine School Feis is a great day of fun with opportunity to perform and meet other Irish dancers and their families!

Information and registration sheets available at all classes.
